

STATE NEW HAMPSHIRE	COUNTY Grafton  TOWN OR VICINITY Hanover Dartmouth College Campus 1p 3d
INDEX NUMBER NH. 5-HANO, 1B	MONUMENT Shattuck Observatory
REPRESENTED IN NEGATIVE FILE	H.A.B.S. SURVEY NO. NH-69	History - Built in 1854 through a gift from Dr. George C. Shattuck
PUBLISHED PHOTOGRAPHS		(Dartmouth 1803) of Boston stipulating Professor Ira Young to supervise the project
PUBLISHED DRAWINGS		and his brother, Ammi B. Young, the architect, to design the building. The cost, about $4,800.
		Description - Brick building on a granite base. Three wings project from a two story, (over)

Description, continued.

circular tower (20' diameter) originally with a wood framed, metal clad, revolving dome. The building was recently remodelled and the dome replaced.

References: Wendell H. Williams, The Architectural History of the Observatory, Dartmouth Student Thesis in Carpenter Library, Hanover, N. H., 1934. Cites letters, reports and records preserved at Dartmouth as authority for facts.

O.R.Overby, "Ammi B. Young in the Connecticut Valley," Journal of the Society of Architectural Historians, vol. XIX, no. 3 (October, 1960), pp. 119-123.

Prepared by - Henry C. Edwards and Osmund R. Overby, Architects, National Park Service, 143 South Third St., Phila. 6, Pa. - September 1959.